

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 25th, 2025

The territory occupied by the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali (later known as Galilee) was the most northerly part of Israel. Because it bordered on pagan territory it would have been associated with darkness. It was the first province of Israel to be conquered by Assyria in 732 BC. Isaiah predicted future liberation for the people of that region. In his Gospel, St. Matthew sees Isaiah’s prophecy as fulfilled in Jesus.

History of the Catholic Church (#101) – In line with these developments, there was a big shift in the very idea of the sacred. Before Constantine the whole Church was considered the realm of the sacred as opposed to the profane world outside; after Constantine and the breakdown of the separation between Church and world, the polarity between sacred and profane was transformed into one between sacred clergy and profane laity. A clear indication of this trend in the Western Church is found in the requirement of celibacy for the clergy, which was adopted mainly on the grounds that sexuality was incompatible with the sacred character of the clerical state. Legislation to this effect was first passed at the local synod of Elvira , Spain, and taken by the Popes beginning with Siricius (d. 399), who enforced clerical celibacy in their decretals.

INSTALLATION OF BISHOP DABROWSKI – On Monday, February 2nd at 11am, our new Bishop, the Most Reverend Joseph Dabrowski, will be officially and liturgically installed into his office at the Basilica of Christ the King in Hamilton. Each parish has only 2 tickets for seats in the Basilica. We have one ticket left! Please see Fr. Irenaeus. If you wish to attend without a ticket, you will be seated in McNally Hall beneath the cathedral.

NEW PARISHIONERS – Welcome! If you would like to register with our parish, please see our website, www.stclementsparish.com. The registration form can be found if you follow the About → Our Churches tabs. There is a spot to note if you’d like to receive donation envelopes. Once completed, the form can be dropped off at the office in the rectory, or dropped in the collection basket.
