

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 15th, 2026

Murder and adultery are born in the heart. Jesus reinterprets the fifth commandment so that it embraces those angry feelings and emotions which may lead up to murder. And He reinterprets the sixth commandment so that it embraces lustful thoughts and desires which may lead to sexual sin and infidelity. As for oaths: Jesus encourages people to behave in such a way that oaths are superfluous. The disciples are simply to be truthful.

History of the Catholic Church (#104) – At the dawn of the fourth century, Christianity was still the religion of only a minority of Roman citizens, but by the end of the century it was embraced by the majority, and Emperor Theodosius proclaimed it the official religion of the Empire in the year 380. The story of its irresistible progress constitutes one of the most dramatic chapters in the history of the early Church.
